

Winssi, Aya

Sverok

Aya Winssi works as project leader for the Swedish Gaming Association, Sverok. Sverok is one of the largest youth organizations in Sweden that works with spreading different parts of the gaming culture around the country.

Aya has led different projects working with extremism, racism and toxicity on gaming and gaming-adjacent platforms and the affect it has on youth and children. Her work includes analyzing and reporting on how extremist actors exploit gaming spaces and report on the experiences of young gamers.
