TEHA Group

Daniela Bianco is a Partner at The European House-Ambrosetti, Head of Health & Life Sciences at TEHA Group, and a Member of its Board of Directors. Since April 2026, she has also been Chief Executive Officer of GDS Communication, a TEHA Group company focused on strategic communication and marketing in the life sciences sector. With more than 25 years of experience in healthcare strategy and policy, she leads research, advisory and multi-stakeholder engagement initiatives aimed at advancing health systems, fostering innovation, improving sustainability and expanding access to care.

In 2005, she co-founded Meridiano Sanità, a leading Italian healthcare and life sciences think tank that fosters research and multi-stakeholder dialogue on health policy, organization and financing. Throughout her career, she has directed numerous projects for pharmaceutical and life sciences companies, industry associations and public institutions, contributing to the development of evidence-based policy recommendations. She is the author of several publications on health policy issues and holds a degree in Business Administration from Bocconi University in Milan.
