

Boyle, Louise

European Health Forum Gastein

Louise is responsible for the thematic programme and Advisory Committee of the European Health Forum Gastein. Louise joined the team in 2011 and has worked for the EHFG in several different capacities, from summer assistant to project manager to interim Secretary General. Prior to moving to Austria in December 2010, Louise was a national policy advisor for different departments in the British Government for six years, including the Home Office and Department for Communities and Local Government. She has also worked for or with several national and international NGOs including GOAL Ireland, Victim Support and The Prince's Trust. Louise holds a BA (Hons) Degree in Social Sciences from the University of Durham, UK and a MSc degree in Public Health from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, UK.

(last updated 28.09.2018)