

de la Mata, Isabel

European Commission Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety

Isabel de la Mata is the Principal Advisor for Health and Crisis Management at the European Commission. Previously she worked as Health Counsellor at the Spanish Representation to the EU, Deputy Director General for Health Planning at the Ministry of Health of Spain and Advisor for the Vice Minister of Health. She has worked with WHO, PAHO, IDB and WB. She is a Specialist in Preventive Medicine and Public Health