

Forsyth, Sean

Department of Health, Ireland

Sean is a civil servant working at the Department of Health, Ireland with responsibility for the funding and relevant legislation of the Nursing Homes Support Scheme (NHSS) and oversight of the Long-Term Residential Care (LTRC) sector in Ireland. One of the main areas of focus is ensuring that the funding for clients in the LTRC is consummate with value for money for the Irish State and reviewing the role Private Investment and Private Equity Investment is having on the impact of services provided under the NHSS.