

Heyn, Hans Maria

S4Dx

Born in 1981 in Tegernsee, studies in Theology in Brussels (BA in 2005) and Political Science in Berlin (BA 2005, Diploma 2007), PhD in Governance at the Free University of Berlin (2009), MBA from the Berlin School of Economics (2017) and M. Sc. in Medical Device Regulatory Affairs from the University in Krems (2019).

Scholarships from the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (undergraduate, graduate and PhD), the e-Fellows Program and the DAAD (both graduate studies), Marshall Memorial Fellow of the German Marshall Fund of the United States.

Worked from 2009 to 2017 for the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS), last as Corporate Head for Strategy and Planning in Berlin, from 2017 - 2018 Head of Corporate Development and Strategy at TRIGA-S. Since 2018 Co-Founder and CEO at S4DX:

- Winner of EIT-Health Wildcard as best e-Health Startup in Europe
- Selected by the WHO as "one of ten most promising e-health ideas globally"
- Accepted by Plug and Play (Mountain View, CA) into the Batch1 Digital Health Accelerator
- Accepted into "GoldTrack Programme for Massive Scaling in Healthcare" (ACI - Boston)
- EU SME EIC Innovation Accelerator, winning application, best innovation idea from Germany in 2019

Teaching assignment at the Catholic University of Applied Sciences Munich, member of the Scholarship Selection Committee of the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung and City Coordinator of the German Marshall Fund in Munich.