

Izambert, Caroline

AIDES

Caroline Izambert is citizen advocacy and campaigns coordinator for AIDES, French community-based association founded in 1984 to fight HIV and hepatitis infections. She is working on discriminations for PVVIH and key populations, especially in health care and access to medicines and innovation. Caroline is an expert for Haute Autorité de Santé (HAS), french HTA. In November 2018, Caroline defends a Ph.D. at EHESS (Ecole des Hautes études en sciences sociales) on access to health care coverage for migrants in France.
