

James, Jules

European Sex Workers Rights Alliance

Jules is a full service sex worker, performer and sex workers' rights activist. She co-founded Red Insight, a media platform for and by sex workers to share stories of sex workers in all their nuances. She is also part of SAVE (Sex Workers Against Violence and Exploitation), a local sex worker-led organisation in the Netherlands. Since April 2021 Jules is programme officer on health and wellbeing at ESWA. Her work focuses on SRHR and mental health. Active in advocacy work at European level she also develops projects to develop the capacities of sex workers and allies in Europe and Central Asia.
