EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Lomakina, Tetiana
Office of the President of Ukraine

Tetiana Lomakina is a PhD in Public Administration and the President’s Advisor & Commissioner for Barrier-Free Accessibility.

Her work focuses on developing modern, evidence-based rehabilitation for people affected by war and ensuring the accessibility of healthcare services.

Working in systematic collaboration with WHO in Ukraine and international partners, she develops national strategies and implements international standards, promoting accessibility as a core foundation of human dignity and societal resilience.