European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies

Willy Palm is senior adviser with the European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies, where he has been coordinating dissemination and knowledge brokering activities. In that capacity he has been leading and facilitating the Observatory's programme of policy dialogues, engaging with policy makers in all countries of the European region to help exploring the evidence on a range of health systems topics and drawing policies lessons that are adapted and relevant to the specific local context. Trained as a lawyer, specialised in European social security law, his field of interest and expertise lies in the impact of EU integration on health systems, including cross-border health care, cooperation in health, patients' rights. Before joining the Observatory in April 2006, Willy was the Managing Director of the International Association of Mutual benefit societies (AIM) and before that worked in the Belgian health insurance system.
