

Schilling, Lena
European Parliament

Lena Schilling, born in Vienna in 2001, is an Austrian climate activist and the youngest Member of the European Parliament since 16 July 2024. She became known for her work with Fridays for Future, is also a co-founder of the Austrian Youth Council and organised the occupation of the Lobau Tunnel construction sites. She studied political science and published the book 'Radikale Wende' in 2022. In the European Parliament, Lena Schilling is a member of the Green Party, fighting for climate and environmental justice, nature conservation and a socially just transport sector.

Photo credit: © European Union 2024 - Source : EP