

Troch, Tomáš

Ministry of Health of the Czech Republic

Tomáš Troch is a senior public servant at the Czech Ministry of Health with extensive expertise in healthcare financing. As director of healthcare reimbursement department, he is responsible for healthcare reimbursement policy, provider payment models, and the regulation of public health insurance financing. Throughout his career, he has been involved in the implementation of major healthcare financing reforms, including the development of the Czech DRG payment system and one-day surgery payments. Tomáš also serves as a member of the supervisory boards of several Czech health insurance funds. At the European level, he has been a long-standing member of the European Commission's Expert Group on Health Systems Performance Assessment and has participated in several OECD health policy and health financing working groups.