

Taking Action on Cancer Together

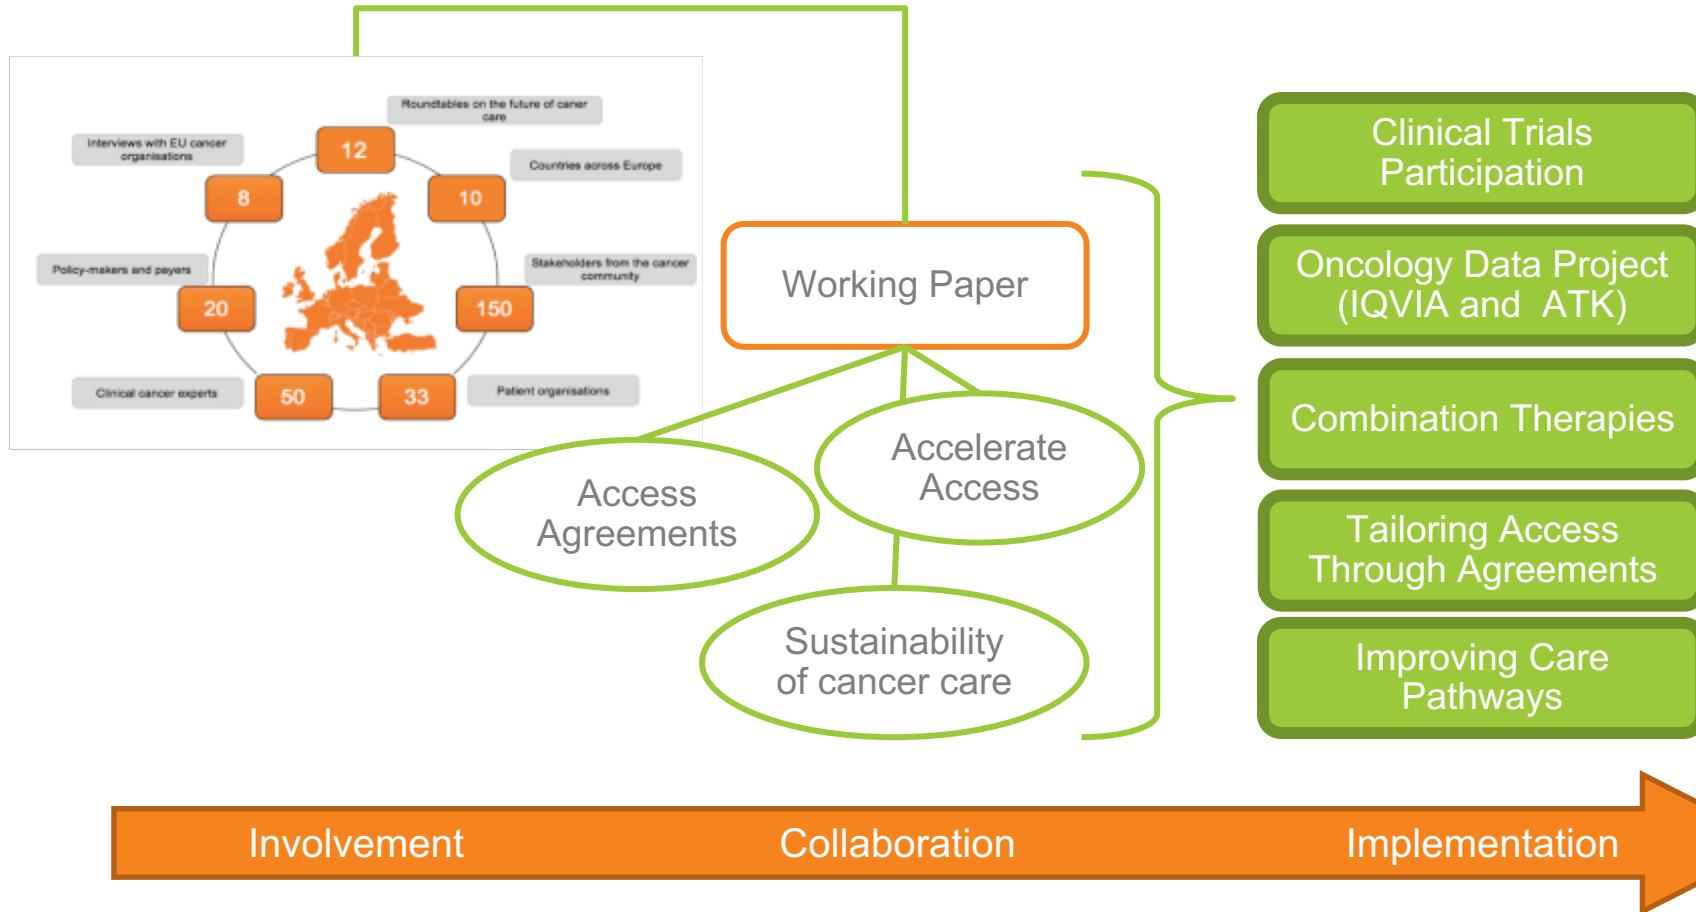

Multi-Stakeholder Discussion Paper

October 4, 2018

Alexander Roediger, MSD, Chair of the EFPIA
Oncology Platform

Five Work Streams Resulted From The Stakeholder Dialogue

«Discussion Paper Cancer Medicines» Is A Commitment On 3 Priorities ...

- 1 Improving the sustainability and integration of cancer care
- 2 Accelerating the time it takes to get new treatments to patients
- 3 Developing tailored pricing and reimbursement models for cancer medicines

... But Work In Progress With The Support Of Stakeholders

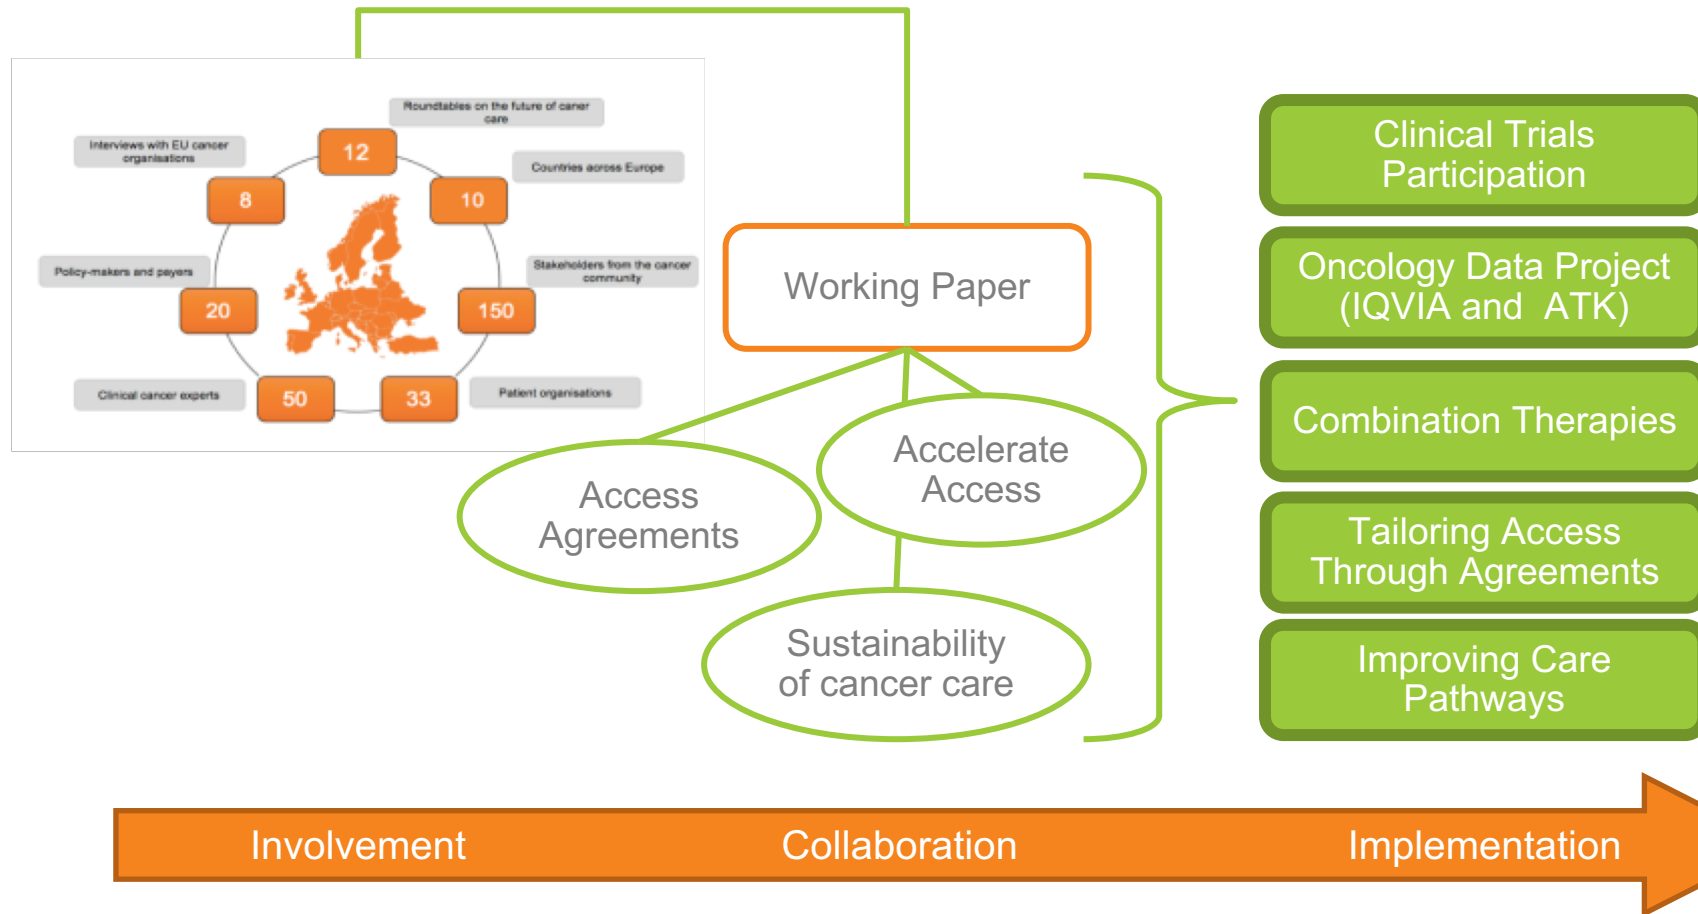

«Joining forces in order to turn such aspirations into reality is more than desirable.»

ECCO statement on the discussion paper

Currently supported by 5 organisations, including

- Cancer Drug Development Fund (CDDF)
- European Association of Dermato Oncology (EADO)
- European Cancer Patient Coalition (ECPC)
- European CanCer Organisation (ECCO)
- Youth Cancer Europe (YCE)

Five Work Streams Resulted From The Stakeholder Dialogue

efpia*

European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations

WeWon'tRest

WeWon'tRest

Disease never takes a break, so neither do we. We won't rest until people around the world see a brighter tomorrow.